

To Secede From N.W. Conference

Larger Schools Form New Conference;
Smaller Schools Acquiesce; Will Mean
Better Sport Program For Each

The inevitable has happened. The Northwest Conference has become so big that it is unwieldy. It will be broken into two organizations. The larger schools took the initiative in the break which has found to be as welcomed among the smaller schools as to the bigger ones.

Nearly a month ago, H. E. Underbrink sent out a questionnaire to Lake Forest, Niles Center, Warren, Leyden, Arlington Heights, Crystal Lake and Woodstock asking if such schools would be interested in the formation of a new conference. The replies were such that an organization meeting was held at Libertyville last week with the result that the initial steps were taken for the selection of a committee to formulate the required constitution and the adoption of new basketball and football schedules for next year.

H. E. Underbrink was made permanent chairman and G. V. Deal, permanent secretary. A. M. Conger of Arlington Heights and R. E. Cotanche, of Niles Center were appointed as a committee on constitution and by-laws.

Two Youths Held For Looting Summer Home South of Palatine

Roy Anderson, 21 years old, and Fred Raddatz, both of Elgin, were held in the Elgin city jail, Monday, on charges of automobile theft, burglary, and larceny. The latter warrants were filed in Cook county after the pair had confessed to burglarizing the palatial summer home of E. J. Bush, vice president of the Diamond-T Truck company, located on Higgins rd. near Palatine.

Valuable shotguns and rifles, an expensive camera, an electric toaster, a flatiron, a dozen boxes of ammunition, clothing, shoes, and other articles of loot were taken from the Bush home, Bush, who resides at 1143 Lathrop ave., River Forest, came to Elgin Saturday night and after checking over the loot that was recovered, placed its value at $518.

Anderson admitted the burglary when he and his companion were apprehended for stealing an Elgin car last week.

He told the story of walking through plowed fields to get to the estate because Higgins rd. was torn up. Gust Glaser, caretaker of the estate, was asleep in his quarters about a block away from the main entrance, and was not aroused. The youths removed a storm window and then broke a pane of glass in the house window to reach in and unlock the catch.

They ransacked the house from top to bottom, carrying their loot back to their car, which was later abandoned. Officers discovered the loot when they caught the pair in Anderson's father's car with the articles.

Palatine Couple Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buenzow of Palatine are planning to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married by the late Rev. Rudolph John of the St. Paul's church of Chicago. They resided on the north side of Chicago for the first twenty-five years of wedded life, moving to Palatine in the spring of 1913, where they took up residence at the end of West Slade street. The following January Rev. John was present to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary there.

They moved to their new home that year just north of the end of town where they lived until 1925. From that time until the present their residence has been at 148 E. Slade street.

Mr. Buenzow is a survivor of the Chicago fire. He, like his father, is handy with woodworking tools, and spends his leisure time doing odd jobs.

Mrs. Buenzow is a member of the St. Paul's Ladies Aid and of which she has been a diligent worker.

Their celebration will include "open house" for their friends and neighbors from 2 to 5 o'clock and will climax with a reception and dinner at the St. Paul's church basement at 7 p. m.

The maid of honor, Mrs. John Eich of Palatine, and the groomsmen, Mr. William Buenzow of Chicago, are the only survivors of the original bridal attendants. They will act in this same capacity at this celebration.

NEW HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER

CLOICE WEIDER, meeting Justice of Peace who resigned to become road commissioner.

Wheeling Man Named Road Commr.

Cloice Weider, J. P., Resigns To Become Highway Commissioner

The village of Wheeling received recognition by the appointment Monday night of Cloice Weider as road commissioner of Wheeling township, which includes the village of Arlington Heights and part of Mt. Prospect, as well as the village of Wheeling.

In his plea for appointment by his fellow members of the town board, Mr. Weider pointed to the fact that since the death of Jacob Schwingel, the village of Wheeling has had no township office allotted to that municipality except a constable and justice of the peace, and that in his estimation the emoluments of those offices are hardly enough to pay the costs of election, bond, etc.

The vote was by secret ballot in which the following members of the town board participated: Supervisor Chas. F. Grandt, Howard Heim, town clerk, Gilbert Klein, Wm. Kopplin, Wm. Weber, C. A. Behrens and Cloice Weider.

The candidates whose applications were before the board were: Mrs. Herman Garmes, Floyd Dobbin, Henry Metz, Louis Clark, Herman Piepenbrink and Cloice Weider.

Following the reading of the application for the vacancy caused by the death of Herman Garmes, C. M. Behrens announced that he favored the appointment of Herman Piepenbrink, giving his reason therefor. Mr. Behrens favored the calling of the roll, but other members of the board asked that the decision be made by secret ballot.

Wm. Kopplin spoke in favor of the appointment of Mrs. Garmes to fill the vacancy. He stated that he recognized that as public officials they could not allow sentiment to interfere with the appointment of a man for the position.

The application of Mr. Weider contained his resignation as a justice of the peace, but after its presentation to the board, on the advice of Attorney Hugo J. Thal, he remained as member of the board, from which he had just resigned. Mr. Thal stated that the resignation could wait until after the result of the appointment was made.

The vote stood Weider 4, Piepenbrink 2, Clark 1.

An adjournment was taken until the latter part of February to act on the recently completed audit prepared by E. P. Laurin, which was authorized by the voters at the town meeting last April.

St. James Patrol Boys Receive Rain Coats

The patrol boys in St. James school did not care if it rained or not this week. Why? The answer is simple. They all had new rain coats.

They hereby wish to thank Mr. C. H. Skoog, Elmer Karstens, Arthur Lauterburg, George Schenberger and Albert Goodke for this donation. This certainly was a wonderful gift and proves the great interest these men take in the patrol boys in Arlington Heights. The boys showed their appreciation by writing individual letters to the donors.

Altknaben Goodke received the following letter similar to ones being mailed to the other donors.

January 6, 1939.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the children of St. James school, we wish to thank you for your generosity in giving the patrol squad rain coats. We all think they are grand.

This personal thanks comes from Captain George Piepenbrink, Lieut. Richard Goodke, Walter Goodtner, Andrew Goeger, Bob Ross, Joe Chabreck, Charles Dearing, Robert Bittner and myself, Gene Saar.

And this personal thanks goes to Arthur Lauterburg, Mr. Albert Goodke, Mr. Skoog, chief of police, Mr. G. Schenberger, Mr. Elmer Karstens.

Truly yours,
Gene Saar.

Mutual Ins. Co. Adopts New Plan

Lake-Cook Entertains Farmers

Stockholders To Hold 11th Annual Meeting, Jan. 19

The board of directors of the Lake-Cook Farm Supply Company have announced that the 11th annual meeting of the stockholders will be held at the Masonic Temple at Des Plaines, at 10 o'clock next Thursday morning.

This meeting will be of unusual interest to the farmers of Lake and Cook counties in that one of the largest dividends in the history of the company has been declared, approximately $50,000. Besides this, interesting reports of the progress of the company will be made by the officers. These reports will be climaxed by the main speaker of the day, Mr. George E. Metzger, secretary of the Illinois Agricultural association.

The Rev. Paul Kasper of the St. John's Evangelical church of Bensenville, will deliver the invocation. Free lunch will be served at noon and as an added attraction the services of the Kentucky Mountaineers and Mary Ellen have been secured to entertain the guests.

The directors, whose terms expired this year and who were re-elected are: Daniel H. Bergman, Palatine; August Harnack, Northwood; Wm. F. Rugen, Northfield.

The other directors of the company are: George E. Metzger, Arlington Heights; George Busse, Mt. Prospect; Henry J. Schroeder, Palatine; Christ Hennig, Des Plaines; E. F. Schoppe, Bensenville and Fred Wille, Des Plaines.

The report of Secretary George Busse was in part as follows:

The year 1938 has just passed and marks the 54th year of the existence of this company. In the year 1933 we had 2,635 policies in force and at the end of the year 1938 we have 3,034 showing a gain in the five years of 399 policies.

The gross insurance of $18,417,024.00 of which $14,057,826.00 represents the actual insurance carried, has increased in actual insurance from $12,490,933.00 to $14,057,826.00.

This increase in such actual insurance during the period of 1933 to 1938, represents an insurance gain of $1,626,887.00 in five years.

Our losses in the past year have been unusually heavy, due to the many electric storms that occurred during the summer months. This condition, however, is also true with other insurance companies, according to information obtained at our Springfield convention.

Des Plaines Accepts
2-way Radio Gift
For Police Auto

Des Plaines councilmen last week accepted a gift of the Police benefit association for a two-way radio communication set from station to squad car. The equipment set included a two-way radio transmitter at $400 a month. The city will have to go to an unestimated expense in preparing a sound proof radio room in the police quarters and the building and plans committee was ordered to get ahead with the necessary work. When operation begins, every police officer will be licensed as third class radio operators.

V. Kaltenborn, who has been a frequent broadcaster of the recent European crisis; Dr. Ruth Alexander, lecturer; January 29, Hon. Arthur M. Hyde, former secretary of agriculture under the Hoover administration; January 30, radio commentator; and January 31, Channing Pollock, playwright, author, lecturer.

Residents of surrounding communities are invited to attend these lectures.

Arlington National Bank Stockholders Re-Elect Directors

The healthy growth of the Arlington Heights National Bank the past year with an increase of $100,000 in deposits, was shown in the annual reports made to the stockholders at the annual meeting Tuesday evening. The deposits at the close of business, December 31, 1938, were $426,000. Cashier Arthur Franzen stated that there was every indication that the half million dollar mark would be passed the coming months.

Directors re-elected were: H. H. Franzen, Carl H. Ewert, Hugo J. Thal, A. H. Franzen, Henry L. Haggenbrink, Carl Lussman and J. G. Wagner. The directors have re-elected the following officers: H. H. Franzen, president; Carl H. Ewert and Hugo J. Thal, vice presidents; A. H. Franzen, cashier.

Policy holders of the Mutual County Fire Insurance Co., of Mt. Prospect, adopted the advance premium plan for all future policies and re-elected the directors, at the annual meeting held Tuesday at the Lutheran school hall.

The directors had given considerable thought to the advantage of the new premium plan a year ago, but the matter was dropped when the policy holders at that time were reluctant about adopting it. This year, it was a policy holder who suggested the change and it was adopted. Under the previous method of premium payment and assessment, the policy holder when he renews his policy often has to pay in addition to the policy charge, an assessment, while the holder of a policy issued in a previous or succeeding year, might escape with only one payment. The operation of such a plan was unfair as all policy holders did not pay the same fee for insurance in any given year.

Secretary George Busse had studied the problem for several years and his plan was presented to the policy holders a year ago and is the one that was adopted by them Tuesday.

Every policy taken out after January 1, 1939, will be issued for one year, then on the anniversary date of that policy it may be renewed for successive terms of one year each, renewal being determined by the board of directors.

The directors, whose terms expired this year and who were re-elected are: Daniel H. Bergman, Palatine; August Harnack, Northwood; Wm. F. Rugen, Northfield. The other directors of the company are: George E. Metzger, Arlington Heights; George Busse, Mt. Prospect; Henry J. Schroeder, Palatine; Christ Hennig, Des Plaines; E. F. Schoppe, Bensenville and Fred Wille, Des Plaines.

The report of Secretary George Busse was in part as follows:

Heights Lutherans In Great Meeting

Members of St. Peter's Choose New Officers
And Accept New Program For 1939

In an enthusiastic meeting of couples; additions to baptized membership 102; burials, 14; 3286 communions in 27 services; private communions, 53; baptized souls, 1887; communicants, 1309; voters, 262; pupils in the day school, 250; pupils in the Sunday school, 350.

Most heartening for pastor and people was the report on church attendance, which showed a total attendance of 40,748 on 52 Sundays listed in monthly totals as follows:

	German	English	Total
January	1532	2728	4260
February	1082	1792	2874
March	1262	1856	3118
April	1292	2847	4139
May	1505	2545	4050
June	994	1925	2919
July	1194	1975	3169
August	940	1515	2455
September	1063	1675	2738
October	932	1955	2887
November	1336	2482	3818
December	1830	2491	4321
Totals	14,962	25,786	40,748

This means an average attendance per Sunday of 784 worshippers, a figure revealing that interest in religion is still very much alive in the Lutheran church.

Interesting and encouraging reports were presented by the various societies of the church indicating a healthy growing condition and profitable activity. The societies reporting were the Ladies' Aid, the Dorcas Aid, the Welcome club, the Senior Walther League, the Junior Walther League, the Freshmen Walther League, the Lutheran Laymen's league, the Concordia Mutual Benefit Society, the Senior choir, and the Children's choir.

St. Peter Lutheran church has been serving the religious needs of the community in a quiet and unobtrusive manner throughout the 78 years of its history. It has made important contributions to the moral, spiritual, and civic welfare of Arlington Heights by teaching respect for law and order, the virtues of honesty and industry and training its members to be good, loyal citizens of this country. The third generation has been thoroughly Americanized and no longer speaks the language of its fathers, but still is loyal to the faith of the fathers. Many men and women, prominent in the political, business, and civic life of this community are products and members of St. Peter's church and school.

Both pastors presented the parochial report. The Rev. C. M. Noack spoke on the spiritual status of the church, while Pastor H. C. Fricke gave the statistical report of 1938.

Following is the report of official acts and membership: Baptisms, 42; confirmations, 48; marriages, 12

The budget for 1939 was accepted at $30,142.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Sacrament" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 8.
The Golden Text was, "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven and giveth life unto the world" (John 6:33).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord. All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord weigheth the spirits" (Proverbs 16:1, 2).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The illuminations of Science give us a sense of the nothingness of error, and they show the spiritual inspiration of Love and Truth to be the only fit preparation for admission to the presence and power of the Most High" (p. 506).

Adult Education Is Topic Of Speaker At P.-T. A. Next Week

The Parent-Teacher association will hold their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, January 18, in the North school. Mrs. Harwood, who was to speak at this meeting on "Globe Trotting," is unable to come at this time due to illness, but she will be available for the April meeting.

The board has been most fortunate in securing a splendid speaker to take Mrs. Harwood's place, and are happy to announce that Mrs. B. A. McGee, lecturer for the Adult Education council, will be the speaker.

She will speak on "Adult Education, a Safeguard to Democracy." Mrs. McGee has had an experience that qualifies her in a unique way to speak on subjects pertaining to adult education. She was associated with the extension division of the University of Wisconsin in its infancy. Here in Chicago she has been actively engaged in women's organizations for the past twenty years. For more than a decade she has been a convincing reviewer and evaluator of books, a lecturer and radio speaker.

Mrs. McGee is very popular as a speaker for Women's clubs and P.-T. A. meetings. She presents a wealth of educational information in a clear and logical manner and the Parent-Teacher association is indeed fortunate in securing her services.

GOOD THOUGHTS

Let us give ourselves to God, to his love and let us fear nothing. He will love us and we shall love Him.

—Penslon.

As God is the source of all good and all happiness, He is Himself sufficient to satisfy all our longings and to fill up the gap which the loss of the world leaves.

—General Gordon.

We need holy thoughts on which to live. We need the thoughts of God that our lives may be guided by His divine influence. He speaks to us through the Scriptures and in the sanctuary. Do we listen?

The luncheon guests and afternoon speakers are announced as follows:

Dr. Samuel N. Stevens of Northwestern university, who is establishing a teachers' training department for Audio-Visual education; Mr. Noble J. "Boys Town" Now At Des Plaines Theatre

The picture that everybody is talking about, "Boys Town" is currently showing at the Des Plaines Theatre. Starring Mickey Rooney and Spencer Tracy of "Captains Courageous" fame, this heart-tugging story of Father Flanagan and his colony of little men in Nebraska ranks as one of the finest photographs presented in the past year. On the same program is presented the latest issue of "The March of Time," and Walt Disney's newest cartoon in technicolor, "The Moth and the Flame." The final adventure of the master detective, Dick Tracy, will be shown Friday and Saturday.

On Sunday, Jane Withers in "Always in Trouble," and the beautiful technician feature starring Sabu, the "Elephant Boy," "Drums," is the double feature attraction.

Insure Your Health

By C. W. Lussman of Sieburg Pharmacy
You may regular insurance fees as the bills are presented, as a matter of course. Life, automobile, accident, fire, even tornado insurance companies receive your check regularly.

More important than any of these is health insurance—a regular visit to your doctor, his fee for checking you over is small. To know your physical condition is to know what you can do, what plans you can make for your future, if you are in rugged health to go full speed ahead, if not, to repair the damage that has been done.

AT THE CATLOW

Gene and Kathleen Lockhart play Bob Cratchit and his wife in "A Christmas Carol," showing as a matinee at the Catlow Theatre on Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening "A Christmas Carol" is repeated as part of a double feature bill with the Jones Family in "Down on the Farm."

"Seabiscuit" appears in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Stablemates," coming to the Catlow Theatre on Sunday and Monday. Racing fans have an opportunity to see Dauber, Sweeney, Indian Broom and Lloyd Pan in the picture which stars Wallace Beery and Mickey Rooney.

An unusual "eternal triangle" composed of a spoiled heiress, a handsome W.F.A. laborer and a fortune-hunting nobleman, is responsible for the entertaining romantic complications in RKO Radio's "Next Time I Marry," in which Lucille Ball, James Ellison and Lee Bowman have the featured roles. On the double feature bill on Tuesday with "Next Time I Marry," is "Nancy Drew, Detective," based on the "Nancy Drew" stories by Carolyn Keene, with Bonita Granville, John Littel, James Stephenson and Frankie Thomas.

"The Great Waltz," a picturization of the life of Johann Strauss, follows the composer's musical career with spectacular presentations of his music, with Luise Rainer, Fernand Gravet and Miss Korja heading the cast. It comes to the Catlow on Wednesday for three days. The music heard in the spectacular production is based entirely on Strauss music.

"The Great Waltz" is being presented as a benefit by the "Mother's Music Club," of Barrington school.

In "Boys Town" Tracy Essays Feat of Playing A Man Living Today!

For the second time in his career Spencer Tracy has played a part which his entire nature rebels against. It is the role of Father Edward J. Flanagan in "Boys Town," which will be shown at the Arlington Theatre Sunday and Monday. His reasons are easy to understand when expressed by the star himself.

"Once before I played the part of a priest," Tracy says. "It was as Father Tim in 'San Francisco.' I fought against taking that part, not because it wasn't respectful and factual, but because I didn't consider myself capable of playing the role."

Mrs. Wright Confined By Accident Injury

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Elka and baby of Glenview and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frazier and daughter of Hinz rd., called at the Wright home on Saturday to find Mrs. Wright in bed since Christmas.

About a year ago, Mrs. Wright was driving to the North Shore to work, early in the morning, when her car started skidding on an icy pavement and turned over.

She was found later by Mr. John Nielsen on his way to the Highland Park laundry. Mr. Nielsen helped her out and offered to take her to a doctor, but she thought it unnecessary and asked to go home instead. The past few months she has been suffering pain in her back and side and it is thought that the accident may have been responsible.

She has failed considerably the past few weeks, becoming very weak and nervous. We hope corrective treatment may be determined and that her condition may improve soon.

Wheeling Scarlet Fever Cases Cleared Up Now

We are pleased to note that the cases of scarlet fever in the school district have all cleared up, having been confined to only three families as far as is known.

The John Brumm family suffered the most, having had six members of the family, including the mother, contract the disease. After recovering from the fever the mother suffered an attack of pneumonia which made her condition very critical for a time.

However, we are glad to know that she passed the crisis and is slowly improving. She is in a very much weakened condition and cannot hope to care for her children for some time. Mr. Brumm has struggled valiantly, being father, mother and nurse to his family under extremely handicapped conditions the past two months, and according to the physician in charge, deserves much credit in seeing them through.

Because of the contagion, help from those outside the family could not be given as readily as might have been otherwise. Mr. Brumm's sister, Mrs. Edward Gieske, is caring for the seven month old baby girl until the mother has recovered sufficiently to take her home.

THOUGHTS OF YOUTH

Well they say, Do you want to play forever and always be a ninny with dirty hands and face? Umph, I say, I'd just as soon, or sooner! Then I'd join as a harpioneer. On some northward faring schooner And I'd spear the whiskered walrus in the chase. Or I'd sail the northwest passage luffing with a spanking breeze, Where, no doubt, I'd see some schools of grampus Sporting in their briny campus, Shouting, You can never, never cramp us! Heads you lose, and tails we win in these green seas! If they ask, I might jump over and go schooling in the deep. That's the life! Oh, I'd be a scaly swordfish, And all day I'd have no more wish Than to hear my sword go swish-swish! Then, of course—I might go home to sleep! S'Amuser.

Legion Plan Activities For 1939

Merle Guild Post American Legion No. 208, held a regular meeting at the Legion Home Tuesday evening, January 10, 1939.

Twenty-five Legionnaires were present to open the year 1939 with a bang.

The commander and his corps of officers has planned a program to be followed throughout the year for the purpose of retaining the interest of all Legionnaires and for the benefit of our community.

At the next meeting special attractions are offered and it is hoped that the hall will be crowded with comrades on that occasion. The General and His Special Pictures will be there! Refreshments after the meeting. Swing is a popular word now, so come out and bring a Comrade with you and get the swing of the Legion.

You will find the deliberations of the Post conducted in truly Legion style and with the old "cadence."

There is a movement on to form a Squadron of "Sons of the Legion" to be sponsored by our Post. How about interesting your Son in this American activity and at the same time sharpen your interest in the local Legion post?

Merle Guild Post needs your membership—Now! Phone 357 or 284 for further particulars.

What is the Legion's Purpose? Service—service to community, State and Nation! Members of the Legion gave service while they were members of the armed forces of the United States in the World War. The Legion was organized that they might continue to give the same service in time of peace as they gave in time of war.

What Do My Dues Accomplish? Of the national per capita tax of one dollar a year, seventy-five cents pays for the member's subscription to the American Legion Monthly for one year. The remaining twenty-five cents goes into the general fund, which is used for the support of Americanism work, national legislative activities, child welfare and other service programs of the national organization. This fund is disbursed in accordance with budgets fixed by the National Finance committee and approved by the National Executive Committee.

What Will the Legion Do For Me? The Legion's program is in the interest of all veterans. You will be represented by its National Rehabilitation and Legislative Committees at Washington. You will be kept informed of your rights and privileges under all federal legislation of benefit to veterans. You will be able to turn to your local post for assistance at any time, along.

Your post can assist you to obtain hospitalization, compensation and other federal or State aid to which you or your family may be entitled. Under the national child welfare program, your dependent children may be cared for, if necessary, in the event of your death.

MT. PROSPECT

Mrs. Otto Busse entertained her bridge club at her home last Thursday afternoon.

It is rumored that Prof. Virgil Bean is one of Mt. Prospect's up and coming business men. Which one?

Oh yes—have you heard that Ervin Holste is forsaking the state of single blessedness? Yea—he's got himself engaged to Miss Sandreen Harvey of Chicago.

A newsy item we missed last week was that 21 members of the Carlson clan met, and dined at the home of A. G. Carlson during the Christmas holidays. We are told that this was the first time in fifteen years all branches of the family got together at one time.

The Masonic meeting will be held Thursday at the home of Mr. A. W. Holmberg, 316 S. Ioka, Mt. Prospect.

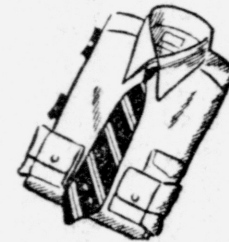

All is in readiness for an evening of gaiety and wholesome pleasure at St. Paul's Lutheran school auditorium Friday evening, January 13.

It will be "Carnival Jamboree" night and much more perhaps need not be said as anyone who has ever attended a Carnival knows what fun and merriment might be expected. However, the St. Paul's Junior Young Peoples Society, who are sponsoring the joyous event, have permitted it to become known that they have been exceptionally fortunate to secure the services of accomplished musicians to provide unique band music and also a group of outstanding entertainers, who will provoke much mirth and laughter by presenting a specially selected farcical pantomime. Besides these feature attractions, there'll be, as announced in the previous issue of this paper, Clowns, African Dodgers, Weight Guessers, Snap Shot Artist, Fortune Teller, Magician and hawkers and vendors of refreshments, confetti, balloons and other wares.

Everybody is invited to come and enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. There'll be no admission charge and although the beginning of the Carnival Jamboree has been set for 7:30 o'clock, all later arrivals will be most welcome as there will be something doing right along.

Arlington Heights— by HERB HAMMERS

The Blatz Beers lost two series last Monday and their lead has been cut down to three games. First the Cafe took them for two games on 1 and 2. Geo. Thompson and "Pop" Giesecke are the ones who made it tough for Blatz and "Ossie" Nelson got 221 in his last game to take the dollar.

On 3 and 4, Hamm took two games from the Elevators. Carl Huber got himself 624 for Hamm and Alex Askefeldt broke 500, charmed 600 circle by getting 609. "Bill" Neumann, with his brand new dapple grey bowling ball, got the dollar on 37.

On 5 and 6 Hartmann took El Rand for the odd game with "Booley" showing the way with 596. Pederson was high for El Rand and the red and got this "back" again.

In the postponed series, El Rand won two games from Blatz, the first game being a photo finish in which Szasz struck out in the last frame to win by one p.n. Szasz got 609 for El Rand and Marty got 616 for Blatz. 233 got the dollar.

Arlington Lightweights Outstrip Libertyville In 2nd Half, 30-10

The Tornadoes took half a ball game to get acquainted with Libertyville's big floor last Friday night, then hit their stride and pulled away to win, 30-10. Scoring only nine points in the first half and hitting only four in thirty shots, they came back strong and were playing their best game as the contest ended.

In the second half they hit ten of thirty-five shots and thoroughly dominated the play.

Many fumbles plus inability to hit baskets kept Libertyville from going ahead in the first half. In the second half Arlington held the host team to fourteen shots of which two scored.

Libertyville's ten points were evenly divided between the second and third quarters. The Wildkittens went scoreless in the first and fourth.

Bob Busse helped build Arlington's slight early lead, while most of his teammates were missing set-up shots of all kinds. He scored again early in the second half.

It remained for Warren Hecken to touch off the fireworks when he re-entered the game late in the third quarter. In the next five minutes he bagged four baskets and a free throw. Heinze replaced him and hit two more field goals. Thoman's defensive rebound work and his passing on offense stood out. So did the play of Miller and Keenig.

Arlington's grade A guards, Priebe and Brown turned in the most effective play for Libertyville, getting half of the team's points and almost half of their shots.

SCHAUMBURG

Mrs. Earl Johnson, as you know, has been visiting her younger daughter and has just returned from Beloit, Wisconsin. The daughter, a new mother, is doing very well, we are happy to report.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Redeker are the owners of a new Chevrolet truck.

Mrs. Eimecke, who has been seriously ill for quite some time, is on the road to recovery. Mrs. Albert Botterman has been nursing for this lady, and has also been assisting the doctor in his work.

Leafing through some books the other day, I happened to come across these two items which caught my interest, and so I pass them on to you:

How High Is Up?

Inebriated (looking down at moon's reflection in water)—Say, is that the moon?

Officer—That's right.

Inebriated—Well, how did I get way up here?

Disappointment

It was in a campus bank that the cashier's heart began to throb as a beautiful damsel strode up to his cage and asked in the most endearing southern accent, "Will you cash my check, sir?" "I'm afraid," responded the cashier with part of one eye on the check, "you haven't endorsed it correctly."

Jealousy

"No, it's made out to Gertrude H. Grey and you've written just Gertrude Grey."

"Ah, but you don't quite understand me," barked the exasperated cashier, "What I mean to say is, you left out the H."

"Oh, so I have," she exclaimed with a sweet sugary smile as she took out her pen and wrote:

Producers Ask Continued Prosecution of Indicted Milk Men

In a resolution passed by the independent milk producers of Kankakee they ask that no truce be made by the department of justice with the indicted parties who have formerly controlled the milk price in Chicago. The resolution reads as follows:

WHEREAS the milk situation from the standpoint of milk producers has for years been intolerable and that it has tended to bankrupt the producer.

WHEREAS the situation finally reached the stage where it has required action by a Federal Grand Jury and has resulted in wholesale indictments by that body after an investigation which lasted several months.

WHEREAS several of these indicted parties have petitioned the United States Department of Agriculture to assume control of the marketing of milk in the Chicago milk shed ostensibly to protect the price level but in fact to provide immunity from prosecution.

WHEREAS the United States Department of Agriculture has petitioned the United States Department of Agriculture to assume control of the marketing of milk in the Chicago milk shed ostensibly to protect the price level but in fact to provide immunity from prosecution.

THEREFORE we desire to register our protest against any such procedure, which would allow any of the above mentioned parties immunity from prosecution. Furthermore we the United Farmers of Illinois, Independent, and Union Producers Milk Associations, demand that open hearings be held, and be notified of, and to be heard at any such meetings which may be held by any Department or any Agency of the Government;

And if the Department of Agriculture takes supervision that the milk producer be guaranteed an average minimum cost of production.

Calf Roping

Calf roping originated because cowboys had to rope and tie calves on ranches in order to brand them. The cowboy chased the calf on horseback, caught it with his lasso, dismounted and tied three of the animal's legs together, rendering it helpless.

At Springfield...

By Bernice T. Van der Vries Representative, Illinois General Assembly, from the Seventh Senatorial (Chicago Suburban) District

When the 61st session of the general assembly was called to order at 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday of last week, that important ceremony so far as the Republican and now the majority side of the house was concerned was almost an anticlimax.

This situation was the result of the excitement which had prevailed for weeks, in fact, ever since the results of the November election had made certain Republican control of the house. The fight, for surely it must be so described, ended on Tuesday night when, after a dinner given for the Republican members of the house by the Republican state central committee, the caucus was held and the speaker, clerk, doorkeeper, and postmaster were selected by the votes of the 79 Republicans of the house.

At the same time the Republican members of the senate were having a dinner under similar auspices and a caucus to select their floor leader, the Republican side in the upper chamber being the minority. The Democratic members of the two houses were also meeting to select a minority leader in the house, and a leader and a president pro-tem in the senate.

The main interest to all members of the general assembly was the Republican house caucus. By the time we all assembled in Springfield the large field of candidates for the speakership had reduced itself to two, Representative Elmer J. Schnackenberg of Chicago and Representative Hugh Cross of Jerseyville.

Although the question of the selection of the speaker would appear to most people having a casual knowledge or interest in the general assembly as something for the members of the house to decide, a true picture of the situation in Springfield would show the greatest activity during the final hours by representatives of labor, political factions and the still lively organizations of defeated candidates for high offices.

Rumors added the Democratic organization to the list of groups interested candidates. Organizations of business men were trying to keep out of the controversy, though often times with difficulty. Pressure was being exerted on members who had not openly declared themselves for a certain candidate and the pressure was particularly strong on the new members. Many times during the hectic two days before the caucus I felt that if the members of the house could go off by themselves away from all pressure groups the whole affair would have been better for all concerned.

After many dinners were barely touched in the tenseness of the moments approaching the balloting, the nominating speeches were begun, speeches which probably would not change a vote.

Jumped on Bandwagon
The voting soon disclosed the fact that Mr. Cross was winning and toward the end some certain supporters of Mr. Schnackenberg jumped aboard the band wagon in order to be on the winning side.

At the end Mr. Schnackenberg made the motion which made the selection of a candidate for speaker unanimous.

In passing on from this picture of the selection of a speaker of the house by the political party to which I belong I should like to express my gratitude to my constituents in the seventh district for the confidence which they place in me by permitting me to use my own judgment in supporting and voting for Mr. Schnackenberg for speaker. Not one person, organization or political faction attempted to influence me. Unofficially speaking for Mr. Sprague, my new colleague, I am sure that he too feels that same gratitude.

Only a few bills were introduced after the organization of the general assembly was completed, most of the members preferring to wait until the committees are organized as all bills introduced now must be laid on the speaker's table until committees function. Among the few bills was one introduced by a new member which would exempt food from the sales tax. This gesture was undoubtedly made for the purpose of attempting to fulfill a campaign pledge, as the bill is definitely unconstitutional under the uniformity provision of the revenue article of the constitution.

At the close of the opening session all members received their salary checks for the entire two year term.

There will be another session on Monday when permanent seats will be drawn and the newly elected state treasurer and state superintendent of public instruction will be inducted into office. Future articles will carry news of special interest to the seventh district and news of the activities of Senator Bidwell. Representatives Arthur W. Sprague, Emmett McGrath, and myself.

Ice Makes Wheels Turn 40 Extra Miles on Trip

Dr. Saffold returned New Year's Day from Dallas, Texas where he and his wife visited on a holiday vacation. They left Des Plaines by auto Thursday and found the roads covered with ice for the first 200 miles, the roads not being clear of ice until south of Springfield. The Saffolds drove back over the same route checking both time and mileage. They were not surprised to find that the iceless return trip was six hours shorter, but they were surprised to note that the speedometer showed 40 miles farther over ice than over clear road, a good indication of how many times the wheels turned without moving the car on the 200 miles of icy pavement.

Christmas Tree Fire

An estimated $3,000 damage was done by flames that destroyed the sun parlor and living room of the home of Dr. C. J. Hill, Des Plaines, on New Year's eve. Short circuited Christmas tree lighting was blamed for the blaze. Dr. Hill is a brother of Dr. C. E. Hill, of Arlington Heights.

Converted immediately to a flaming torch, the tree gave impetus to flames that fed on Christmas decorations and drapes and devoured furniture and household fixtures. Mrs. Hill discovered the blaze as she was putting her two children to bed.

Small Farms Have Chance To Enter Into AAA Program

by Farm Adviser C. A. HUGHES

The 1939 A.A.A. program makes provisions for the small farm of three or more acres. First, all farms regardless of size that have an allotment of corn less than eight acres may make a "non-allotment" application early in the spring and put out as much as eight acres of corn.

There will be no payment for corn where an increase is made, let us say, for an allotment of five acres to eight acres, but the farm will not be disqualified for a "general" soil improvement payment.

The same thing is true for wheat but the farm can come in for the soil building payment. In cases where farms have a total soil depleting allotment of less than twenty acres they may elect to sign a "non general allotment agreement." This "non general allotment" agreement may allow a farm, let us say, with a general soil depleting base of fifteen acres to put out twenty acres and not jeopardize their general soil depleting payment.

These general soil depleting payments are earned by soil improving practices such as plowing down, applying lime stone, and seeding clover and alfalfa, etc. These provisions we believe will make it possible for smaller farms and farms with no corn allotment at all to come into the program. Next week we will discuss one or two other special provisions of the program which should be of particular interest to farmers in Cook county.

Rock Phosphate Is An Insoluble Fertilizer

by Farm Adviser C. A. HUGHES

At a recent soil testing meeting, a farmer had some soil to test on which he had added rock phosphate but still the soil test showed an inadequate amount of available phosphate. This phosphate had been put on bare ground and ordinary soil depleting crops had been grown on it without the addition of manure or the addition of clover or alfalfa.

On another farm on which we showed a testing a sample of soil showed a very high amount of available phosphate on land that had received rock phosphate. On this particular piece of land alfalfa had been grown for a number of years.

The reason for one place getting a good test for soluble phosphate and the other not is because rock phosphate itself is insoluble and must be made soluble by certain farming practices. The commonly accepted methods of making rock phosphate soluble is to get it first worked into the ground and then using either alfalfa or sweet clover. These two crops have the ability of taking large quantities of phosphate from the insoluble rock and building it up in their own structure. Alfalfa roots plowed down or sweet clover stubbles after pasturing adds considerable available phosphate to the land. This is a very easy way to improve land efficiently in phosphate by the use of these legumes.

Also rock phosphate can be added to manure and spread on the ground. There is some difficulty in this method from the phosphate clogging the gears of the manure spreader and causing them to wear. However, the dairymen who are milking cows will do well to keep phosphate on hand and add it to the manure at the rate of about 100 pounds for every load of manure.

Rock phosphate must be applied as insoluble fertilizer and a farming practice as described above must be followed in order to make this insoluble fertilizer available. There is a place on the average farm for both basic application of rock phosphate and for the use of soluble fertilizer which we will mention next week.

Gave Venezuela Its Name Amerigo Vespucci, also known as Amerigo Vespucci, made his first voyage of discovery in 1497. It is believed that he landed in Honduras and was thus the first white man to set foot on the mainland of the western continent. He is the man who gave Venezuela its name. The word means "Little Venice."

At a recent soil testing meeting, a farmer had some soil to test on which he had added rock phosphate but still the soil test showed an inadequate amount of available phosphate. This phosphate had been put on bare ground and ordinary soil depleting crops had been grown on it without the addition of manure or the addition of clover or alfalfa.

On another farm on which we showed a testing a sample of soil showed a very high amount of available phosphate on land that had received rock phosphate. On this particular piece of land alfalfa had been grown for a number of years.

The reason for one place getting a good test for soluble phosphate and the other not is because rock phosphate itself is insoluble and must be made soluble by certain farming practices. The commonly accepted methods of making rock phosphate soluble is to get it first worked into the ground and then using either alfalfa or sweet clover. These two crops have the ability of taking large quantities of phosphate from the insoluble rock and building it up in their own structure. Alfalfa roots plowed down or sweet clover stubbles after pasturing adds considerable available phosphate to the land. This is a very easy way to improve land efficiently in phosphate by the use of these legumes.

Also rock phosphate can be added to manure and spread on the ground. There is some difficulty in this method from the phosphate clogging the gears of the manure spreader and causing them to wear. However, the dairymen who are milking cows will do well to keep phosphate on hand and add it to the manure at the rate of about 100 pounds for every load of manure.

Rock phosphate must be applied as insoluble fertilizer and a farming practice as described above must be followed in order to make this insoluble fertilizer available. There is a place on the average farm for both basic application of rock phosphate and for the use of soluble fertilizer which we will mention next week.
